- 1.2. A Data Protection Officer (DPO), Ms. Dorota Gross, has been appointed, who can be contacted regarding your data and related matters via: [iod\[at\]indigokrakow-wawel.pl](mailto:iod[at]indigokrakow-wawel.pl) or in writing to the address of our registered office, indicated in point 1.
- 1.3. Use of the Controller’s websites is voluntary. Likewise, it applies to the providing data necessary for the conclusion of Contacts, including contracts for the provision of services within the scope of the Controller’s activities. In this case, the provision of personal data constitutes a contractual requirement, and if the data subject wishes to conclude such an agreement with the Controller, they are obliged to provide the required data. Generally applicable legal provisions impose an obligation on the Controller to process personal data (e.g. data processing for the purposes of keeping tax or accounting records), and failure to provide such data will prevent the Controller from fulfilling these legal obligations.

- 1.4. The Controller exercises due diligence to protect the interests of individuals whose personal data is being processed. In particular, the Controller is responsible for ensuring that the data collected is:
 - (1) processed lawfully;
 - (2) collected for specified, legitimate purposes and not further processed in a manner incompatible with those purposes;
 - (3) factually accurate and adequate in relation to the purposes for which it is processed;
 - (4) stored in a form which permits the identification of data subjects for no longer than is necessary to achieve the purposes of the processing; and
 - (5) processed in a manner that ensures appropriate security of the personal data, including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction, or damage, by means of appropriate technical or organisational measures.
- 1.5. Taking into account the nature, scope, context, and purposes of the processing, as well as the risk of infringement of the rights or freedoms of natural persons—of varying likelihood and severity—the Controller implements appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure that the processing is carried out in accordance with this Regulation and to be able to demonstrate such compliance. These measures are reviewed and updated as necessary. The Controller applies technical measures to prevent unauthorised persons from gaining access to or modifying personal data transmitted electronically.

- 5.5. Data profiling.
Personal data may be subject to profiling in the context of website management. This involves automated analysis or prediction of an individual's behaviour on the website. Details are provided in the section COOKIES AND ANALYTICS.

6. COOKIES AND ANALYTICS

- 6.1. Cookies are small text files containing information, which are sent by a server and stored on the device of a person visiting the website (e.g. on a computer hard drive, laptop, or memory card of a smartphone – depending on the device used by the visitor to access our website). Detailed information about cookies, as well as their origin and history, can be found, among others, here: <http://pl.wikipedia.org/wiki/Ciasteczko>.

- 6.2. The Controller may process data contained in cookies when visitors use the website for the following purposes:
- Remembering data entered into contact forms;
 - Customising the website content to the individual preferences of the User (e.g. regarding colours, font size, or page layout) and optimising the use of the website;
 - Conducting anonymous statistics presenting how the website is used.
- 6.3. By default, most web browsers available on the market automatically accept the storage of cookies. However, users can define the conditions for the use of cookies through their individual browser settings. This means that it is possible, for example, to partially restrict (e.g. temporarily) or completely disable the ability to store cookies.
- 6.4. Detailed information on how to change cookie settings and delete cookies manually in the most popular web browsers is available in browser's help section.
- 6.5. The Controller may use Google Analytics and Universal Analytics services provided by Google Ireland Limited (Gordon House, Barrow Street, Dublin 4, Ireland). These services help the Controller compile statistics and analyse traffic on the websites. The data collected through the above-mentioned services is processed to generate statistics that support website administration and traffic analysis. This data is aggregated in nature.
- 6.6. It is possible for an individual to easily block the sharing of information about their activity on the Online Store website with Google Analytics – for example, by installing a browser add-on provided by Google Ireland Ltd., available here: <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=en-GB>

7. FINAL PROVISIONS

- 7.1. The websites <https://indigokrakow-wawel.pl/en/>, www.heritageandhip.pl may contain links to other websites. The Controller encourages users to review the privacy policy applicable on those external websites once they are redirected. This privacy policy applies only to the Controller's and the HOTEL's websites.
- 7.2. Automated decision-making by the HOTEL, including profiling, is based on the creation of Guest preference models in order to customise services to individual needs and to prepare relevant marketing content. The Controller informs that data provided in the registration card is not used for profiling purposes.
- 7.3. However, Guests always have the right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing, including profiling, and may request human intervention. To do so, please contact the Hotel directly.
- 7.4. Controller's Statement

The HOTEL declares and assures that the organisational and technical measures it applies to ensure the security of personal data processing meet the requirements specified in the GDPR, in particular with Article 32 of the Regulation.

To exercise your rights or to obtain information related to data protection, please contact via the following email address: info@indigokrakow-wawel.pl
